

Joseph H. Albeck

Joseph H. Albeck, M.D., is a child of Holocaust survivors. He practices at the McLean Hospital in Belmont, Massachusetts. Dr. Albeck is also a Clinical Instructor in Psychiatry at Harvard Medical School. His interests include psychopharmacology and the intergenerational transmission of psychological trauma and resilience. Since the 1970s, Dr. Albeck has been a leader of groups for children of Holocaust survivors. He has written commemorative poetry, lyrics for choral music, as well as textbook chapters and professional articles on Holocaust-related subjects. Dr. Albeck has also been active in professional training endeavors and in the Harvard Trauma Study Group. He has lectured in Europe and North America and is Chairman Emeritus for Intergenerational Aspects of Trauma for the International Society for Traumatic Stress Studies. Dr. Albeck is also a founder of the New England Holocaust Memorial and is president of TRT, Inc., sponsoring participant research encounters between groups in conflict.